P.C.:

The Petitioner by this petition challenges the decree passed by the City Civil Court. The ground is that the decree is not binding on the Petitioner because he was not party to the suit. Remedy of the Petitioner is to obstruct the execution of the decree. Petition for that purpose cannot be entertained. The Petitioner has also not placed any material on record which will show to the court what is the exact nature of the decree passed by the City Civil Court. Petition disposed of.
